

Steps for publicity

- Designation of Nodal Officer for publicizing Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS)
- Awareness Campaign through seminars and lectures by experts on various provisions of New Criminal Laws.
- Special awareness campaign for focused groups namely female (faculty, students and non-teaching staff) to address the relevant sections/chapter dedicated to offences against women and children in the new Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita,2023) in line with victim centric approach.
- Focused Awareness on filing of e-FIR, provisions relating to first time offenders, Deshdroh, Community Service etc. shall also form part of publicity campaigns.
- Module on New Criminal Laws shall be included as part of Faculty Development Programme (FDP) to impart awareness of New Criminal Laws on ongoing basis.
- Awareness of New Criminal Laws through community outreach shall be ensured through legal aid committee functioning as part of Law department in HEIs or through NSS Volunteers in a tie-up with District Legal Services Authority.
- Web based publicity and use of platforms like Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram to raise awareness about the benefits of these laws, emphasizing improvements over the previous codes and also through distribution of flyers be undertaken.